

Car Treasure Hunt in aid of Deddington Day Care Centre

Aka the Thursday Club, for which many of DN readers may be very grateful, as they provide respite for those people who in our community who need it, filling their Thursdays with care, fun, food and entertainment.

The Car Hunt is on Sunday 12 May, with starting time slots from 10.30 to 11.30 at 10-minute intervals. It involves driving through our beautiful local villages, having a walk around and collecting answers to clues to a set of questions. It is fun for couples, a car full or a family. There are pubs and places to picnic en route.

Cakes and teas are provided at the end at the Windmill Centre, Deddington courtesy of the ladies who run the club. If you can't make the hunt, cakes and teas will be for sale from 4pm if you just fancy a Sunday afternoon tea.
